Total marks for exam: 25

Total questions: 5

Marks for each question: 5

Question Types:

- One question is based on theory. Two example questions are given below
    1. Why we used iostream at top of our program?
    2. What is purpose of main function in our program?
- Four questions are based on program writing. In other words, you will have to write code/program for given task. Examples for this type question are similar to tasks given in experimental tasks and assignments.

Content Included for This Exam

You will have to cover all of following contents, if you want to get excellent score in this course.

- All lessons from 2 to 10
- Both assignments (i.e., assignment 1 and assignment 2)
- All experimental tasks given in each lesson.